

PRAMA'

Guñatrikoṇa

In the primordial phase of creation, the three attributional principles (of the Cosmic Operative Principle) evolve countless geometric figures which all eventually get transformed into triangles of forces (guñatrikoṇa).

As long as this guñatrikoṇa or guṇayantraka is in a balanced state, the sentient is converted into mutative, the mutative into static, and the static into sentient. This process of mutual conversion has been going on endlessly.

Due to this homomorphic conversion, the balance of the triangle of forces is maintained. But in this process of constant metamorphosis, a stage comes when, due to the pressure of the static Prakṛti, the balance of the triangle is lost and the process of creation begins through one of its vertices

Pramátrikoña or Lokatrikoña

Human existence is trifarious—physical, psychic and spiritual. These three aspects give rise to pramátrikoña or lokatrikoña in individual entities as well as in the collective body.

Prama'

- Root verb - Ma'(means to measure, to fathom)
prefixed by - Pra
Suffixed by - d'a and T'a'.
- Etymological meaning of prama' is balance.
- Equilibrium and equipoise are collectively known as prama'.
- Prama' is indispensable in individual life as well as in collective life.

Prama' in all the three spheres of human existence

PHYSICAL SPHERE

PRAMA' SAM'VRDDHI

When the balanced state of material development, having reached a supreme height, maintains proper adjustment with the psychic and spiritual elevation of individuals and the collectivity, it is called pramá saṁvrddhi.

PSYCHIC SPHERE

PRAMA' RIDDHI

Pramá rddhi occurs when the balanced psychic stratum attains the peak of progress and maintains adjustment with the material and spiritual progress of individuals and the collectivity.

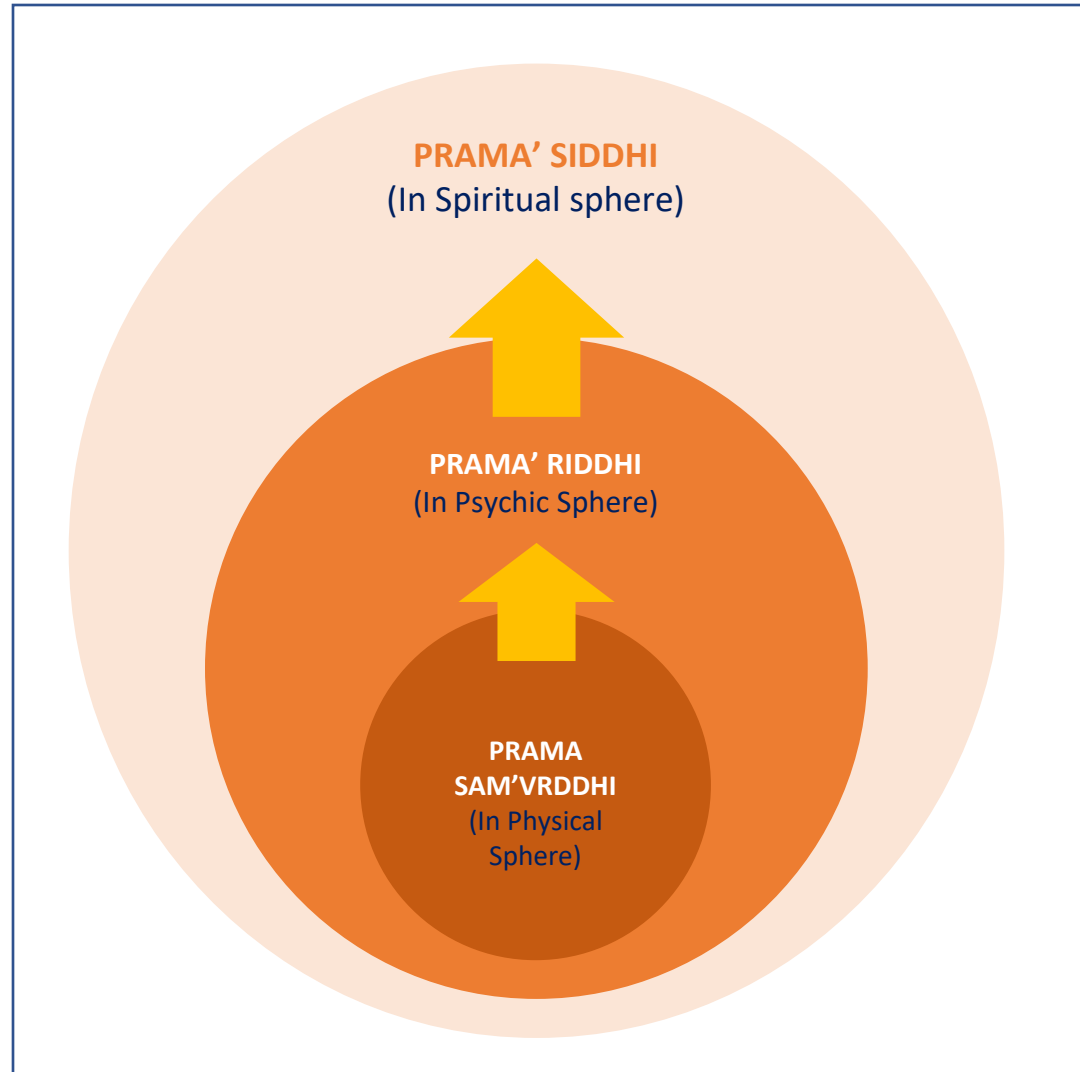

SPIRITUAL SPHERE

PRAMA' SIDDHI

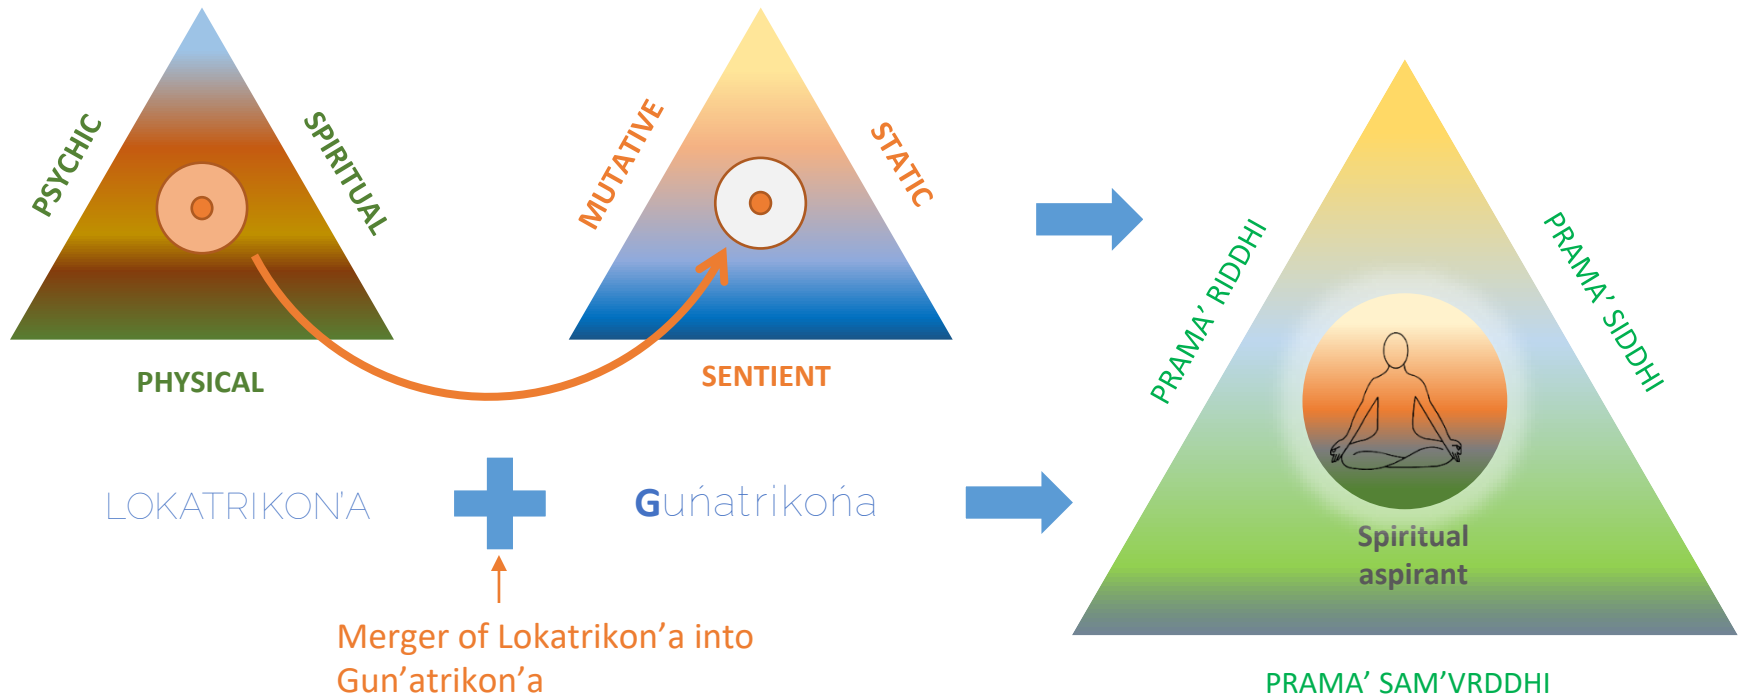

Finally, pramá siddhi is a state in which the mind, having transcended the psycho-spiritual stratum, attains a pinnacled state and absolute equilibrium in spiritual progress, and at the same time maintains an adjustment with the physical and psychic development of individuals and the collectivity

All round progress

By attaining pramá saṁvṛddhi in the physical stratum, pramá rddhi in the psychic stratum and pramá siddhi in the spiritual stratum, society will achieve the stage of all-round welfare, progress and perfection.

Balance state of Lokatrikon'a

A spiritual aspirant has to establish a balanced triangle through Prama' sam'vrdhi in the physical sphere, Prama' riddhi in the psychic sphere, and Prama' siddhi in the spiritual sphere.

SAMADHI

Perfect consummation of human existence neither is positive nor a negative state of mind but a state of equilibrium.
